

Requiring 'Field Repairable' Amateur gear, as proposed in the request for rulemaking, would very likely only increase the cost & bulk of said gear and decrease it's availability (drive away manufacturers). This request for rulemaking would have a chilling effect on manufacturer's willingness to invest in innovative new Amateur designs by requiring 'old' technology and larger rigs.